The smiles of love and life,
 Live for today in our younger generation;
 Reflecting the ideals of old,
 That our forefathers gave to us as wisdom.
 All born to run with that great American Spirit of Seventy-six . . .

As seasons change with time,
So time changes with people.
This book has captured time —
Times full of love and laughter that will never be forgotten.
In our hearts we will always remember the good and bad of our year.
We have captured fulfilling memories,
Memories that will always be cherished.

We hope you all will enjoy this book
as much as we have enjoyed making it for you.

That great American gift of courage,
For independence, liberty and freedom. . .

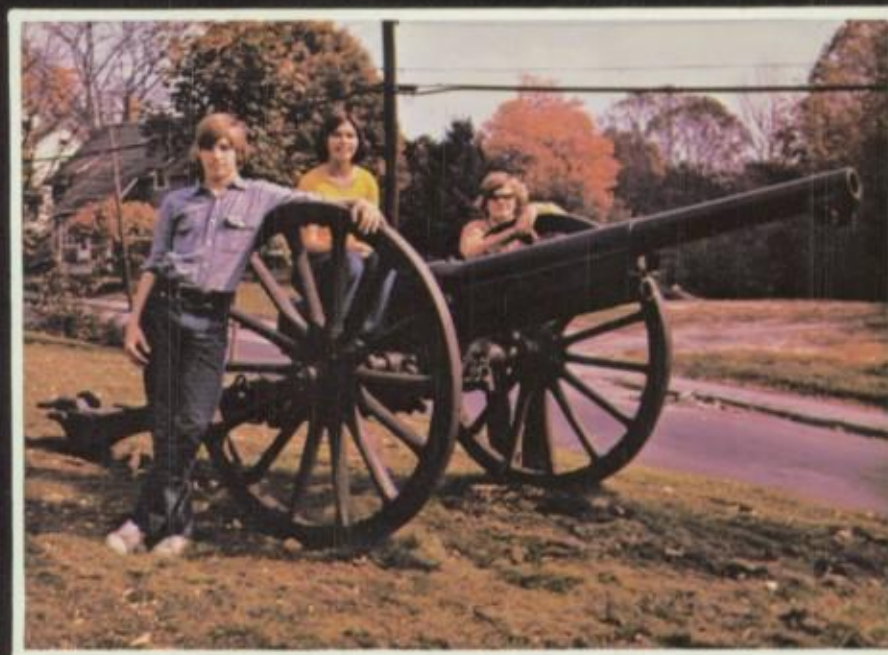

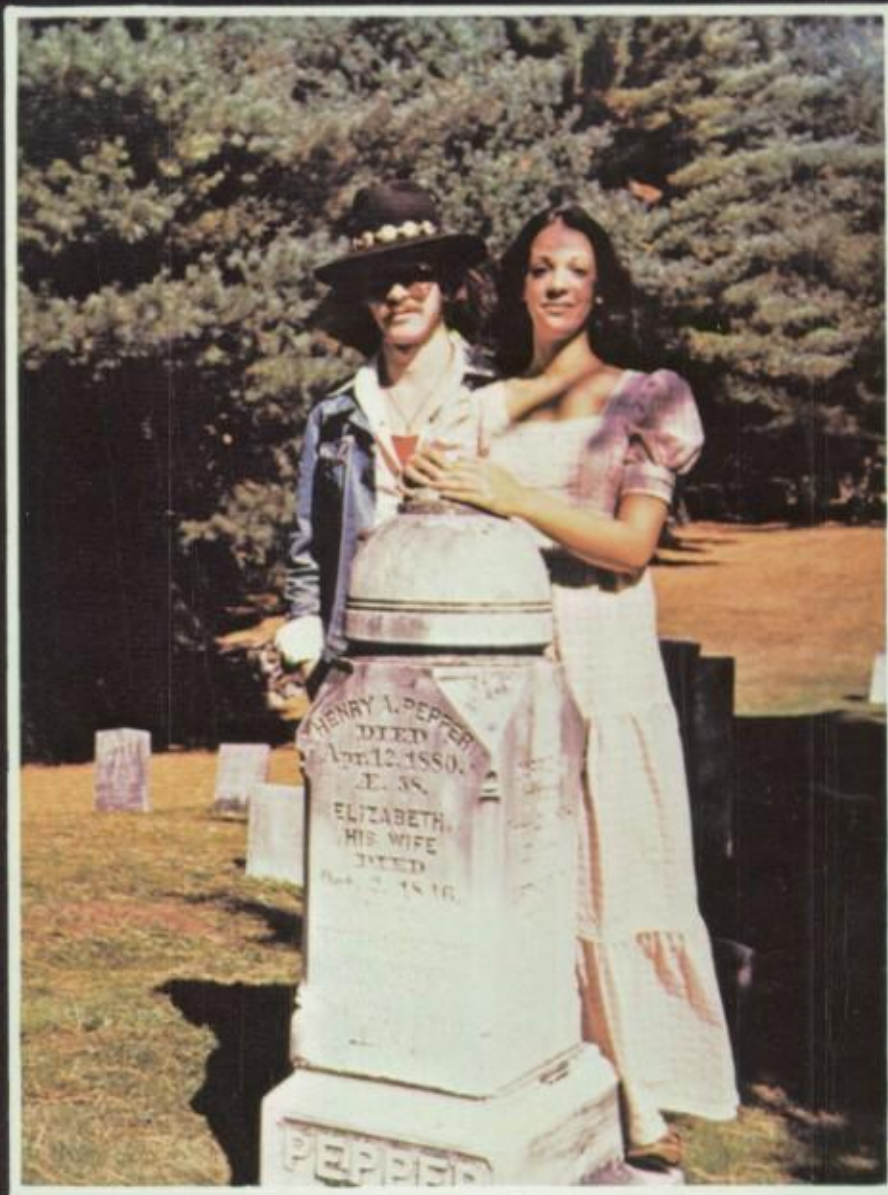

The men, women of our future,
Grasping for the impossible . . .

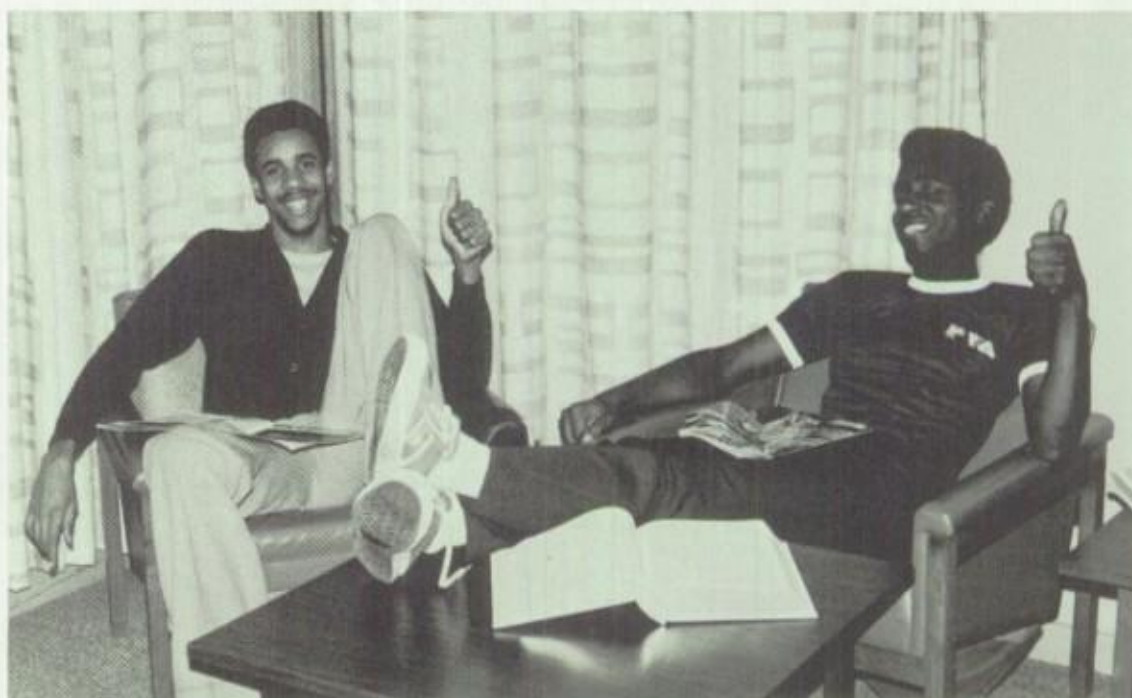

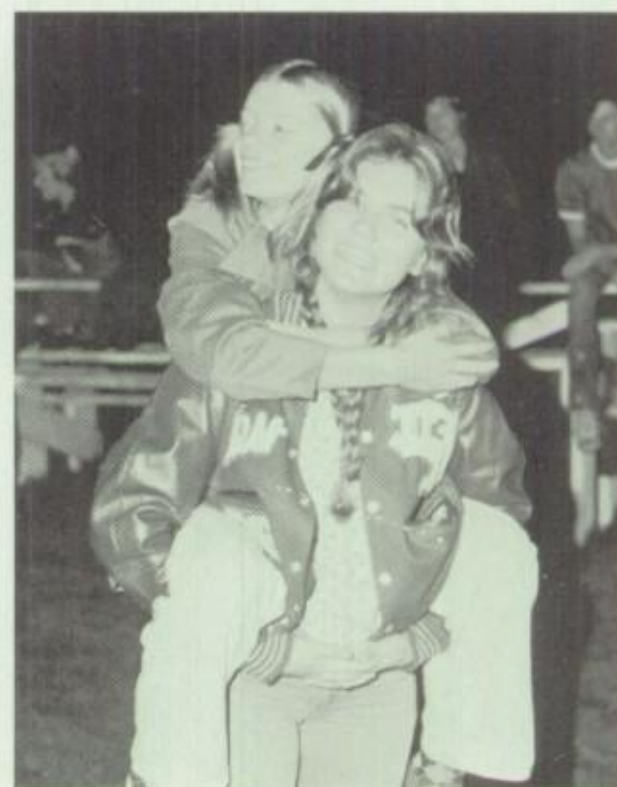

Succeeding in its realities,
Striving, living for love, peace and harmony.

To a beautiful lady,
who is willing to make life
bright for all.

We are blessed, that you have a quality of love, containing a sincere interest in the students' welfare. You are most sympathetic when we're in distress. When illness comes, it's wonderful to see such a kind, smiling face to cheer us up.

Your deep concern has made you like a mother to us all.

Most of all, your attitude of kindness to everyone has made you in complete harmony with others.

Thank you for the many years and late nights of endless dedication.

Because of this and much more, to you, Mrs. Nickerson, we proudly dedicate this 1976 Citadel.

We love you always,
The Yearbook Staff
